

Vedanta Hospital, Lanjigarh arranges activities to eradicate Malaria

STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE
LANJIGARH, 4 JULY

Vedanta Hospital in Lanjigarh, organised various activities for the medical fraternity, community and saw participation of over 20 doctors from Kalahandi and Rayagada districts to galvanise the community into action to eradicate malaria at the grass root level.

The program aimed to empower individuals and communities to protect themselves from malaria and other seasonal diseases through campaigns, competitions and cleanliness drives.

Mr Rakesh Mohan, COO - Vedanta Aluminium, Lanjigarh unit said the company will support a massive drive on health and sanitation across the region as it is committed to the fight against malaria and other seasonal ailments.

The aim of the program is to reduce malaria from 6 Gram Panchayats of Lanjigarh block

The inauguration of the Malaria Control Program was done by Dr B L Prushty, Rayagada District Malaria Officer and Dr Nihar Kumar Panda, Kalahandi District Malaria Officer.

The aim of the program is to reduce malaria from 6 Gram Panchayats of Lanjigarh block in Kalahandi district in the coming months.

Senior doctors from Apollo Hospital, Bhubaneswar were invited to conduct the programme; Dr Salil Kumar Parida and Dr Chinmaya Pani addressed the gathering.